

Frank Townsend is the President of Patriot Shotcrete & Constructors, LLC. Patriot Shotcrete & Constructors, LLC is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business. Previously, he was the Vice President of Operations for Superior Gunite. He is a Civil Engineer graduate of Worcester Polytechnic Institute, in MA, and holds a Master's Degree from the University of Missouri. Frank served as an Army Engineer Officer who deployed to numerous deployments from Central America to the Middle East. He was selected to Command the HHC Company for the 249th Engineer Battalion where he was in the Army Corps of Engineers leading Disaster relief, responding for the Federal government for Emergency work during Natural Disasters. Frank Served for 8.5 years and separated from the Army with a Service Disability with an honorable discharge.

Frank then worked for Conti Federal Services and Schiavone Construction as a Superintendent and Project Manager for the Croton Aqueduct project and the 2nd Ave Subway 72nd St project.

Frank is an active member of ACI 506 and ASA, and currently serves on the ASA Board of Directors. Frank is a member of the Moles and Beavers (Heavy Construction Organizations), NJ ACI, NY CIB, American Society of Concrete Contractors, American Society of Civil Engineers, and Society American Military Engineers (SAME), remaining a lifelong soldier. He has been Awarded the US Army Corps of Engineers deFluery Medal and Engineer News-Record New York's "Top 20 under 40" design and construction leaders in 2016.

Some notable projects include below grade wall at the World Trade Center, New York; Structural Shotcrete on the East Side Access Project, New York; Henry Hudson and Bayonne Bridge in New York, just to name a few.

